

Alan Ross Prophecy 28th Oct 2018

We thank you Father God for Jackie. I came to rescue you, says the Lord, and now I'm in the process of establishing you.

You needed a dramatic conversion because you were not prone to listening to people quickly. The last thing you decided you would be in your life is some kind of religious fruit and nut case. You knew enough of them already, why try the religious variety. But I never gave you religion, says the Lord, I gave you relationship and this is what you have sought all the days of your life. You have a tough exterior but a very sensitive interior and I have given you not only a heart for relationship but a heart for intimacy too, says the living God.

I am moving a wall off your life tonight, emotional attachments from the past. There are still memories and voices that come looking for you and disorientate you, seek to give you an opposite message of what you've heard in the Gospel. And the Lord says this is all part of cycles of deliverance that I have released into your life. Cycles of deliverance that are nothing other than a little bit of tooth extraction here and there. I'm anaesthetising you, says the Lord, by my Spirit so you don't feel the pain anymore. There's been a lot of emotional pain in your life even anguish in your life, at times nightmares that are absolutely grotesque. And the Lord is breaking all of that off your life tonight. The Lord is breaking all that off your life tonight. The blood of Jesus is cleansing your thought processes and the word of God is establishing new thought structures in your mind.

The Lord has been birthing within you by the Holy Spirit the gift of faith, the gift of faith. My Holy Spirit is birthing the gift of faith that you will move within day after day. That will become part of you. When you will hear things being said and other Christians are saying "well I could never see that happening", I will ignite that gift of faith within you and you will say "yes, yes this will surely come to pass".

You have a forthright personality. At times you're very dogmatic. At times you are forthright and when you're forthright it would cause a Bulldog's knees to turn to jelly. But the Lord has also put within you a Care Bear, a nurturer. And this is going to come out more as you walk along the path of discipleship.

The Lord says the Spirit of wisdom and revelation that brought you to salvation is working mightily in your life. I've given you deeper confidence in the word of God. Read the Psalms says the Lord. Especially Psalms that highlight human emotion. Especially Psalms that bring comfort to you. The Lord says I will develop new thought structures in your mind as you memorise Scripture. I am restoring your memory says the Lord. I am restoring your concentration says the Lord.

But the primary work I am doing in your life is building a pillar of strength within you. That you will move in an indomitable spirit. That you will speak with great spiritual authority. Yes I have put scaffolding around your life so you will not fall backwards or sideways or forwards. But the Lord says I will keep moving you around lots of different Christian communities to give you lots of flavours that you can marinate in my Presence.

But the day will come says the Lord when you will be the queen of the note takers. You will turn up with a notepad and take notes. You will have a CD library in your house that would make Billy Graham blush. You will just feed off the word of God night and day and day and night. For I give you an obsessive mind for righteous purpose. And I'm moving that big obsessive mind of yours towards the word of God. That you will enter into the fullness of Christ and be my witness in this region says the Living God.
